Next 'City' Hearing Will Be Thursday

Realignment Plans Told For Highway

In response to recent inquires, Supervisor Mel Nielsen reported vesterday that preliminary plans have been prepared for the realingment of Orinda Highway, between Ardilla Road and Bear Creek Road.

These tentative plans have been discussed at the Planning Commission and with engineers of the East Bay Municipal Utility District.

Exact location of this future road alignment will be worked out to minimize encroachment on the present and future facilities of EBMUD's water treatment plant and other properties, Nielsen said.

Some of the right of way for the project has been purchased; additional funds must be budgeted before the remaining right of way can be purchased and construction started, the supervisor stated.

County engineers have been instructed to watch closely the traffic developments on this important section of road. This traffic has increased from the 1000-3000 former daily vehicle count to 3000-5000 vehicles per day since the opening of the new section along the San Pablo Reservoir.

"While this is a significant increase, it does not compare with the 10,000 to 11,000 vehicles per day which are using the portion of the road between Miner Road and the Orinda Interchange; this latter section will be replaced next year by the Orinda Village Bypass, now under construction," Nielsen said.

SHEPHERD OF THE VALLEY Lutheran Church women are sponsoring a noon luncheon meeting to be held at the Orinda Willows next Tuesday, at which a free will offering will go toward construction of new Sunday school rooms, through the building fund. Discussing plans for the luncheon are, left to right, Mesdames Curtis Silver, Harold Engman, Robert Babcock, Albert S. Hidy Jr. and Martin Bekedam. Mrs. Hidy is the pastor's wife. Guest speaker at the luncheon will be John Wheatman of Jackson's' whose subject will be 'Decorating on a Budget."

Citizen Group Holds Another Work Confab

With requests for exclusion totaling over 100 and with official protests mounting to some 60 or more, the continued hearing on Orinda incorporation is now scheduled for 9 a.m. next Thursday.

Originally, next week's session had been set for Wednesday, but last Tuesday, following the morning hearing session that day, the continuance was scheduled for Thursday of next week.

As the incorporation hearing sessions maintained their high level of interest, the Citizens Research Committee on Orinda Incorporation held another work conference Wednesday night at the Orinda Highway home of Lindsey Spight, acting chairman.

WE'LL BE REPRESENTED at the Board of Supervisors hearing next Thursday," Spight said following his group's meeting.

"At that hearing on the following Tuesday, the supervisors may designate a date for an election on Orinda Incorporation.

"The next meeting of our group will be held about the end of November. We expect to have Supervisors Mel Nielsen and Ivan Goyak there, along with someone from the County Public Works Department, preferably Victor Sauer, the director."

Spight said that his group wants to discuss with Sauer the complicated road problem.

AT LAST WEDNESDAY'S night's gathering the group adopted the report by its public safety committee which consists of Jim Moriarty, chairman; Paul Pollaczek, Russell Gilwee and Fred Crawshaw.

This report recommended that the new city of Orinda, if formed, contract with the county for a county-operated but city-controlled police force, in the form of sheriff's men assigned to Orinda for specific agreed-upon periods.

IT WAS ESTIMATED that the annual cost to Orinda for an adequate level of such police service would be about $75,000 to $80,000.

Also at the Wednesday night gathering, the Citizens Research Committee expressed satisfaction with the estimate that even if a city of Orinda cannot get on the tax rolls for the 1958-59 fiscal year, it would lose only about $26,000 in local property taxes but would still receive some $274,000 in other forms of revenue, including state subventions.

The recreation problem was referred back to Dr. Ralph C. Hall's committee, for more specific recommendations based on past studies.

CLARENCE BETZ announced yesterday that anyone desiring a prepared form letter protesting the incorporation of Orinda and also asking the exclusion of his property from the proposed area to be incorporated, may obtain such forms at his office in the Dykes Building at 61 Moraga Highway, Orinda, over Black's Market.

"All such letters of protest must be filed with the County Board of Supervisors at or before 9 a.m. next Thursday," Betz said.

Probation Head Will Seek Bunce Case Continuance

A continuane of one or two weeks will be asked by Don Thompson, Alameda County director of adult probation, when John H. Bunce Jr. of Orinda, confessed stock siwndler, comes up for probation report and sentencing today, Thompson said yesterday.

Bunce, 34-year-old former wartime bomber pilot, has pleaded guilty to one count of grand theft and one ount of violating the corporate securities act.

He was arrested September 16 on complaint of Arthur Johnson, Walnut Creek real estate man, who charged that Bunce had swindled him out of $20,000 he (Johnson) had given Bunce to invest.

BUNCE IS SCHEDULED to appear today before Alameda County Superior Court Judge S. Victor Wagler in Oakland.

The grand theft charge is based on the $20,000 transaction specified by Johnson. The charge of violating the corporate securities act is based on accusation that Bunce sold stock without a license.

Explaining why he intended to request a continuance, Thompson stated he has found additional persons who did business with Bunce and that he needs more time to question them.

HE SAID the number of persons has increased to 80, including 60 who claim to have been swindled.

Earlier, it had been believed that Bunce had bilked 56 investors out of $535,236.

Thompson also stated that Bunce will be examined by the probation department's psychological staff "to see what made him tick."

MEANWHILE, bankruptcy proceedings against Bunce had been continued from last Monday to yesterday afternoon by Federal Bankruptcy Referee Bernard J. Abrott in Oakland because of the illness of Bunce's attorney, Suren Toomajian.

The involuntary bankruptcy proceedings were filed by Edgar F. Sawyer, George T. J. Towle and Dr. Thomas Sorensen, three Contra Costans who claim they lost $85,091 to Bunce.

They are represented by Attorney August B. Rothschild, and they instituted the proceedings as creditors in an effort to determine existing assets of Bunce.

Attorney John Nejedly of Walnut Creek, representing another alleged victim of Bounce—Dr. Edward Moore, Walnut Creek dentist—suggested, in a letter to Contra Costa County District Attorney Francis Collins, that a Contra Costa County Grand Jury investigation of Bunce's embezzlements be conducted.

ONE OF BUNCE'S victims, Paul H. Haller, 64-year-old Lafayette building contractor who lost $19,400 he gave to Bunce to invest for him in August, shot and killed himself with a shotgun in the back yard of his home at 1000 Walnut Drive last week.

Bunce's home is at 14 Cascade Lane, Orinda. He had been vice-president of the Pacific States Securities Company in Oakland.

Final Arguments In Recorder Trial Presented

Closing statements by defense and prosecution attorneys were being made late yesterday afternoon in the non-criminal trial of County Recorder Ralph Cunningham.

The jury was expected to be charged as soon as the attorneys completed their statements by Judge Homer Patterson.

WEDNESDAY, the court heard testimony from James V. Todesco, senior clerk in the recorder's office, charging Cunningham instructed "kickbacks" and was frequently absent from office.

David J. Levy, deputy district attorney of Contra Costa, is seeking to convince eight men and four women jurors that the Grand Jury's accusation of Cunningham's knowledge of the kickback payments and absenteeism from office constitute "gross and willful misconduct in office.

If found guilty, Cunningham could only be ousted from office. The elected official can not be fined nor jailed under the bill of accusation filed by the grand jury.

TODESCO TESTIFIED that he gave $12 monthly since April, 1955, to Jack Haule at Cunningham's request as a condition of receiving his appointment as senior clerk. Haule, a long-time intermediate clerk, resigned when the investigation began.

The probe into a $5 shortage in accounts for the issuance of duplicate birth and death certificates culminated in a non-criminal accusation being returned by the Grand Jury.

"McBride told me,' said Todesco, "he knew all about the 'kick-back' and then he asked: 'What do you know about it?' "

Hoyt Hayden of 4420 Pleasant Hill Road, Martinez, the assistant County Recorder since 1941, testified Wednesday that Cunningham spent a full day's work on the job until about eight years ago, when he began spending more time at home. Hayden said that since then, Cunning has averaged about one hour each day at the office, in the afternoon or evening.

Hayden said telephone calls for Cunningham were handled by deputies in the office or were referred to Cunningham's home.

EARIER, Todesco, testifying on direct examination by Deputy District Attorney David J. Levy, told the jury in Superior Court Judge Homer W. Patterson's court, "that as far as I know he never had regular hours."

Francis Hoey, who with his father, James F. Hoey, is defending Cunningham, objected to questioning as to the length of time the official spent in his office. He said the law prescribed no fixed time.

But Judge Patterson overruled him, saying:

"It is not a question of law—it is a question of fact and I think the jury should decide."

Levy then asked the witness how Cunningham, Contra Costa recorder since 1934 and a deputy for seven years, received his paycheck.

"He would come in once a month and get it," said Todesco.

ATTORNEY Francis Hoel attempted to shake Todesco's knowledge of Cunningham's activities and asked if it weren't possible that the official could have been in some other part of the office.

"We knew when Mr. Cunningham was in the office," said the senior clerk. "We didn't keep a time clock on him, but we knew when he was there and when he wasn't. People always were calling up for him and we had to know."

Central Valley Bank Will Be Built in Orinda

Construction is expected to begin around December 1 on a $125,000 building which will house an Orinda branch of the Central Valley National Bank, according to Robert Stephenson, architect who is drawing the plans for the structure, for Indenco Engineers of San Leandro.

The building, to be of contemporary design and with a recessed, landscaped patio area, will be on the east side of Moraga Highway — the location where R. E. Wadsworth's real estate office and Downs' Interiors are now situated.

These two structures will be removed to make way for the new building.

During the construction period, Wadsworth is planning to occupy quarters upstairs in Fred Wood's building, and Joe Downs is planning to operate his business from his other establishment, Downs' Upholstery in Orinda Village, according to Wadsworth.

COMPLETION of the new structure is expected by late spring, depending on the weather.

Wadsworth and Downs are planning to sublease space from the bank, with entrances to the bank and the real estate office to be from the patio and with the Downs establishment at the southern portion of the structure.

In addition, there will be about 1200 square feet of floor space for small professional offices on a mezzanine at the back.

Over-all floor space of the building will be about 95 by 90 feet.

ON OCTOBER 9 the Contra Costa County Board of Adjustment granted the bank a variance permit for a 6-foot setback for the project.

Owner of the land is William Wightman Norton.

The Central Valley National Bank main office is at 22nd and Broadway, Oakland. It now has 16 branches.

Top Ranking Dope Fighter Nabbed by US Agents Here

A top ranking State Narcotics agent was jailed late Wednesday night by the federal narcotics commissioner on charges of peddling heroin for the last four years, according to Colonel George White, chief of the Federal Narcotics Bureau in San Francisco.

Fred Braumoeller, a state agent for 12 years and a resident at 56 Claremont Drive, Orinda, claimed he was framed and the entire matter was brought about by a feud between state and federal narcotics agencies.

The veteran agent emphatically denied the charge and insisted the arrest was motivated out of spite. He was taken by federal agents at his home.

His arrest was made by three federal agents and three investigators of the state attorney general's office.

Harold Robinson, deputy director of the criminal division of the attorney general's office, said the dope fighter was accused of supplying several addicts with heroin in exchange for money and gratuities. He did not state just how much money and what type of gratuities were involved.

The heroin, according to Robinson and White, was abstracted from supplies seized in raids by state agents and local police.

The arrest came as a "complete surprise and shock" to the chief of the state bureau of narcotics enforcement, Walter R. Creighton, according to a press report.

Attorney General Asked to Allow Suit of District

Attorney General Edmund G. (Pat) Brown was urged Tuesday by the Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors to allow the filing of a suit aimed at excluding areas of the county from the Alameda-Contra Costa Transit District.

In a telegram to Brown, signed by chairman of the Board, Ray S. Taylor, the board said it had been requested at a public hearing to ask the attorney general to give the utmost consideration to allowing the suit of the Contra Costa Transit Council requesting exclusion of the unincorporated areas of Contra Costa and the cities of San Pablo and Richmond from the district.

Brown has denied a petition by the council to test the validity of the district in the courts as a whole, but granted permission to test the inclusion of the unincorporated areas, San Pablo and Richmond.

The telegram noted that the board held a public hearing October 16 on the inclusion of the areas in the district.

It also stated that officials of organizations representing more than 160,000 residents of Contra Costa "unanimously requested" the board to ask Brown for the consideration involving filing of the suit.

Copies of the telegram were sent to Governor Goodwin J. Knight and to state legislators.

Equipment Now Going in New Phone Building

Installation of equipment has begun in Orinda's new dial telephone building.

Once installed, the complex electronic equipment will provide nationwide direct distance dialing for Orinda telephone customers.

Pacific Telephone Manager Howard Greenhalgh said that the building itself, on Santa Maria Way, is already completed and that installation of dial equipment is proceeding on schedule.

"From present indications" he said, "it looks as if the building will be ready for service next summer."

Not only will the new telephone building bring nationwide dialing to Orinda, but it will also provide facilities to meet the ever-growing demand for telephones in the Orinda area.

Cost of the entire project, Greenhalgh said, will be about $1 million.

PG&E Given Rate Hike

Contra Costans will find their electric bills up on an average of 32 cents a month beginning November 15.

The State Public Utilities Commission yesterday granted the Pacific Gas and Electric Company a 5.16 per cent electric rate increase.

This, according to estimates, will reutrn $16,967,000 a year to the utility firm.

The rate increase will apply to domestic, agricultural and industrial customers alike.

A commission spokesman said the company will now have a 5.75 per cent rate of return on its investment. P.G.&E. had sought increases to bring a 5.95 per cent return.

In granting the increase, the commission refused a PG&E request for a clause to provide for automatic electric rate adjustments geared to changes in the price of fuel oil and natural gas.

Civic Affairs Hears Reports

Committee reports and a financial report highlighted the monthly meeting of the Orinda Association's Civic Affairs Committee at the Orinda School auditorium Monday night.

The committee reports were on:

1. The situation regarding the pending trade of property by the Orinda Association and the Orinda Community Church; this report was by Holland DuBois.

2. Commuter parking, by Horace Breed.

3. Teenage recreation, by Stanley Allen.

The financial report, for the association as a whole, was by Marvin Baker, association treasurer.

None of these reports contained new information, but they brought Civic Affairs delegates up-to-date on various activities.

Toward the close of the meeting, Dr. Ralph C. Hall, chairman, reminded delegates that the November 18 meeting of the group would be devoted mainly to nominating a slate of directors for the forthcoming annual association election.

New Orinda 'Y' Indian Tribes Formed

New "Y" Indian tribes were formed Oct. 16 at the Orinda School.

At this meeting John Price, executive secretary of the East Contra Costa County YMCA, and Harry Clemons and Ted Taylor of Orinda described the "Y" Indian Guide program to fathers of boys attending first and second grades.

Also present were members of the 14 tribes now in Orinda.

Following a joint meeting of fathers and sons, the boys were entertained with movies, while the fathers organized new tribes or joined existing ones.

The "Y" Indian Guides is a national father and son club program, sponsored by the Young Men's Christian Association. It is a program in which fathers and sons participate together as tribe members.

Its main purpose is to multiply the number of things that fathers and sons can do together at an age when a boy thinks his dad is the greatest man in the world. Tribes are composed of fathers and their sons who are 6 years of age and over.

Fathers and their sons who were unable to attend this meeting are invited to join the new groups. Further information about this program may be obtained from Harry Clemons, Walter Schneider or Charles Kersten.

Flu Hits Peak At Miramonte; May Get Worse

Although the incidence of flu in the schools has been on the wane, the absentee rate at Miramonte High School is the highest it has ever been this year, according to Principal James A. Lewis.

He said that yesterday there were 78 students missing from classes. This is about 12 per cent of the 650 total enrollment.

"It is hard to say if the number is going to increase yet, but we are keeping close tabs on it," Lewis commented.

During recent weeks when the flu, Asian and other varieties, was causing high absenteeism in other schools. Miramonte seemed to be unaffected.

The absentee rate then was about five per cent, which is normal.

In the Orinda School District, the flu bug has not given up.

The missing pupils formed 28 per cent of the total enrollment at the Pine Grove Intermediate School, compared with a 19 per cent absenteeism a week earlier.

Sleepy Hollow continues to operate with classes reduced some 31 per cent.

The average for the district is 19 per cent, which is about four times the average for this time of the year.

Two cars were involved in a rear end collision, and one person was injured on Orinda Highway near Minor Road Sunday, according to the California Highway Patrol.

Injured in the construction zone mishap was Francis Cherry of Marks Road, Alamo, who was a passenger in an auto driven by Thomas H. Brighton, of 60 Bela Vista Avenue, Walnut Creek.

Patrolmen said that Brighton stopped because of traffic at a point narrowed to one lane and was struck from the rear by the car driven by Charles Bradbury of 1040 Thomson Road, Lafayette.

Bradbury told CHP officers that his brakes failed to work in time. He was cited by the CHP, states the report.

Supervisors Set Work Sessions on Dog 'Leash Laws'

Work sessoin on proposed dog and animal control ordinances will be held next week by the Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors in Martinez. The proposal was made after Mrs. Melba Johansen of Concord suggested a "Leash Law."

The board noted it will study proposals made in the past, then draft an ordinance on which public hearings will most probably be held in November or early December.

Mrs. Johansen, president of the National Pet Welfare League, has an ordinance, which has already been adopted by many cities. It forbids any dog's wandering off its owner's property unless it is leashed and led by a competent person.

The proposed law would forbid the dog's creating a nuisance on any public or private property and would require "curbing."

Second and Fourth District Mel Nielsen and Bud Buchanan noted that any "leash law" would be unenforcible until more adequate pound facilities are available.

Tom McBride, assistant district attorney, stated the law would just make a private nuisance a public one.

Fire Board to Meet Thursday

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Commissioners of the Orinda County Fire Protection District will be held at 8 p.m. next Thursday at Fire House No. 1 on Avenida De Orinda, in Orinda Village.

District Secretary-Finance Officer Clarence T. Betz explained that the October session has been postponed from the previously scheduled date of last night because of the inability of the fire board president and vice-president to be on hand last night.

Ordinarily, the regular meeting of the fire board is held the fourth Thursday night of each month.

Z. T. Montgomery is board president. Gilbert Earle is vice-president.

Sauer Tells Final Plea For Survey

A final plea to "do it this week-end" was voiced by highway authorities in charge of the postcard questionnaire survey of city-county and state highway traffic patterns, now under way in Contra Costa.

"We are closing off the time for receipt of cards next week," Victor W. Sauer, director of the County Department of Public Works, said today in announcing a 24 per cent reutrn of cards thus far.

"We have to start tabulating results," Sauer said. "We had hoped for a greater return than has been made. We now only hope that delinquent motorists will fill out and mail their cards over the weekend. They can contribute importantly to the result of the survey if they will take but a few minutes of their time to execute their cards."

Sauer directed a special plea to cities. "The highway needs of cities will be great in the future," he said. "City dwellers should gain the recognition their communities deserve by sending in their cards."

Den 2 won the Cubby for the best behavior of the evening. Songs were sung, and in the absence of Mr. Reiser, Dr. Frederick Burton, assistant cubmaster, officiated. The meeting was well attended and the boys had a good time.

Den 14 put on a skit on the ghost and goblin theme for Halloween.

The next meeting, in November, is to be based on Cub Scout achievement week, at which time there will be awards to the boys who have earned them.

What Happens When Stories Are Beheaded

The famous headless horseman of Washington Irving's "The Legend of Sleepy Hollow" had nothing on the Orinda Committee of the American Field Service and the Orinda Orioles Unit of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center last week.

In the columns of last week's Sun, the Orioles were (figuratively speaking) headless, and the Orinda AFS Committee, while having a handsome "head," was without the "body of a news story.

The headline "Orinda AFS to Present 'Hi-Styles'" appeared over an article about the Orioles' forthcoming bridge party. And the story of the AFS fashion show, which was held yesterday, apparently had just gone off AWOL.

We're sorry for the confusion that resulted. And we hope that this week's stories on the two events will clear the air.

Orinda Jaycees Will Sponsor Atoms-for-Peace

The U.S. Atomic Energy Commission's traveling exhibit showing peacetime applications of atomic energy will be shown in Orinda on Thursday, November 7, between 1 and 8 p.m., under the sponsorship of the Orinda Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Where it will be parked will be announced next week by James P. Dana, president of the local Jaycee chapter, who made the arrangements with the AEC to show the mobile exhibit.

The "Atoms for Peace" exhibit, housed in a bus-type vehicle is designed to permit the public to walk through it and see illustrations of the peacetime uses of nuclear energy.

In a relatively short time a visitor may obtain an informative view of the national effort to further the objective stated by president Eisenhower in his speech before the United Nations General Assembly in December, 1953:

"To find the way by which the miraculous inventiveness of man shall not be dedicated to his death, but consecrated to his life."

There is no admission charge. The display is composed of a series of panels covering virtually the entire field of nuclear energy development, including the nature of the atom, the mining and refining of ores and utilization of nuclear reactors to produce electric power.

Examples of uses of atomic energy in research in agriculture, medicine and industry are shown. The exhibit contains radioactive ore samples, simulated fuel elements, reactor control rods, radiation-detection instruments and other materials.

Singer Named Semi-Finalist For Opera Honor

Frances Groves (Mrs. Edward Franklin Perry), daughter of Mr and Mrs. M. H. Groves of 2 Camino Encinas, Orinda, has been named as a semi-finalist in a nationwide competition for young singers of professional caliber to receive operatic debuts in Milan and Florence, Italy.

The Perrys now reside near Stockton. They were married August 18.

The former Miss Groves was one of the winners at a regional audition held in San Francisco by American Opera Auditions, Inc. with headquarters in Cincinnati Ohio. Four semi-finalists were chosen at this audition from among a large field of contestants.

The audition was held in the Bohemian Club and the judges included a group of recognized local music authorities and a representative of American Opera Auditions.

Auditions are being given to young opera aspirants of professional caliber, between 21 and 32 years of age, who have already registered with American Opera Auditions. Auditions have been and are being held in New York, Chicago, Dallas, Baton Rouge and Cincinnati for applicants in those areas.

Finalists—perhaps 25—will go to Cincinnati on or before February 15 for a training period in phases of the specific opera to be presented in Italy. Their training will be under the direction of Maestro Giulio Confalonieri of Milan, who will come to America for that purpose.

Maestro Confalonieri is considered one of the greatest living authorities in Italy on music and especially on opera. He is one of the foremost Italian music critics and is a pianist and composer. Since 1953 he has been director of the Finishing School of Lyric Artists of the Teatro alla Scala.

It is hoped that the present committee will be the nucleus of a permanent Orinda Committee for the UN and that future observances and projects will become more significant. Spokesmen for the committee have requested that any organization wishing more information or to become a sponsor of this effort contact Mrs. Anderson.

There will be a meeting at the end of October for all sponsoring groups to outline plans for UN Week of 1958 and possible community UN projects throughout the year.

Baldwin Talks To Zone Meeting Of Lions Clubs

Congressman John Baldwin was the guest speaker at a zone dinner meeting of Lions Clubs at El Nido in Lafayette Tuesday night. Some 70 members of the Lafayette, Orinda, Moraga and Danville Lions Clubs gathered for the occasion.

Accomplishments of the last session of Congress and the flood control project being planned for the Walnut Creek Watershed by the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers were highlights of Baldwin's talk.

Cliff Brooks of the Lafayette club opened the meeting. He turned the chair over to Stanley R. Knight, president of the Lafayette Lions, who introduced the presidents of the other three clubs.

Deputy District Gov. Dill Wolfinger inducted several new members of the clubs.

BALDWIN STATED that the last session of Congress was the first time in 82 years that a civil rights bill had been passed by Congress.

He added, however, that passage of the civil rights legislation had little to do with the disturbance in Little Rock, Ark., which he described as resulting from reaction to the U.S. Supreme Court decision on integration in schools.

The congressman stated that Governor Faubus of Arkansas has been in direct opposition to the Supreme Court ruling and that Faubus' stand continued the most serious threat of a state governor against the federal government since the Civil War.

Baldwin declared that President Eisenhower was justified in taking the steps he did. "The federal government had to act," Baldwin said.

ON THE BUDGET, Baldwin said the budget action was brought about by the largest deluge of mail on the subject in the memory of most congressmen.

This resulted in a one-third cut in the budget—a reduction which he opposed in many instances, he pointed out.

ON FLOOD CONTROL for the Walnut Creek Watershed, Baldwin pointed to the long history of the Army Engineers' program and the probable long course ahead for it.

He recalled that the survey of the watershed had been authorized by Congress in 1950 and that the necessary funds for the survey had been allocated by the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers in 1955-56.

The Corps of Engineers has now completed the survey, is preparing its recommendations and expects to hold a public hearing in the watershed within the next two months, Baldwin said.

THE ARMY Engineers, Baldwin said, will recommend that the $25 million flood control project be carried forward. Cost of the project is planned to be divided as follows, he said: $19 million to be paid by the federal government; $5 million to be paid by the State of California; $1 million to be paid by the local watershed district.

Following the public hearing and the subsequent obtaining by the Army Engineers of assurances from the local district, the state and the federal government for these respective amounts, the project would be submitted to Congress as part of an omnibus rivers, harbors and flood control bill.

The House Public Works Committee would then have to hold hearings on the omnibus bill. Baldwin said, and the Corps of Engineers estimates that these hearings would not be completed until 1959 at the earliest.

SO THE OMINBUS measure would probably not be acted upon by Congress until 1959 at the soonest, the congressman stated.

He also pointed out that an appropriation bill would have to be passed.

THERE'S STILL lots of room on these shelves for many more State-County-City Road Survey questionnaire forms. County Public Works Director Victor Sauer urged motorists to send in questionnaires as quickly as possible. County Roads Are Nearing Capacity; Need New Cash?

County roads included under the $10 million bond issue approved by voters in 1951 are 88 per cent complete, according to a report by the County Taxpayers' Association.

The association board of directors were told by Victor Sauer, public works director, that the roads completed were operating at up to 80 per cent of capacity within a year after they were completed.

The current thoroughfare study has been undertaken because "the use of our county roads has been greater thas any projections which had been made," Sauer said.

The study will be developed in terms of five, 10 and 20 year periods, and to an ultimate population saturation of the county.

Methods to finance the "corrections" disclosed by this study have not yet been developed, the directors were told.

H.S. Teachers' Group Outlines Plans for Year

The Acalanes Education Association, a professional organization which includes the teachers from Las Lomas, Miramonte and Acalanes High Schools, held its first executive board meeting of the school year recently.

Henry Weiss, president, outlined long and short term goals toward which the organization would be guided in the coming year.

Such items as the encouragement of public appreciation of education, expanding services to the membership, intra-staff fellowship through social and welfare activities, investigation of direct and fringe compensation comparable to other salaried professionals, keeping the membership informed of state and national legislative activities were considered basic and important.

Outgoing President Bob Pape was complimented for his work of the last year and in particular for his reorganizational job.

Committee members for 1957-58 were selected from each high school staff in the district. The committee chairmen, Marion Hawk of the membership committee, Kenneth Bailey of professional relation, William Ross of legislative, David Sweetman of the welfare committee and Mario Menesini of public relations will meet with their members and report on practical goals they will work toward in the coming year.

Miller Pleads Guilty to Charges

Sam H. Miller, 10 Ellery Court, Walnut Creek, pleaded guilty to reduced manslaughter charges in the death of a young Martinez women caused by collision last July.

Miller was accused by a coroner's jury of being responsible for the death of Miss Leslie Gaboury, 22 after Miller's car slammed into one in which Miss Galboury was riding on Mt. Diablo Boulevard in Lafayette.

Both Miller, Miss Gaboury and her companion, Melvin Jeppsen of Martinez, were injured in the collision as Miller's car veered across the four lane highway and rammed Jeppson's oncoming auto broadside.

Miss Gaboury died September 24; Jeppsen is recovering from critical injuries and Miller is in a wheelchair.

Adult Program Rapidly Expands At Acalanes HS

The adult education program offered by the Acalanes High School District is keeping pace with the boom in interest in adult education throughout the State and the Nation, announced A. D. Dambacher, director of the Acalanes Adult Center.

Statistics show that both the Nation as a whole and California are experiencing a tremendous increase in interest in adult education classes.

Nearly one million people registered in some phase of adult education during the 1956 school year in California. Throughout the State reports indicate that this number will be exceeded by many thousands this current school year.

"The Acalanes Adult Center is no exception to this trend. With nearly 1600 registered in one or more of the sixty-five classes offered, this shows an increase of nearly 25 per cent over last year's enrollment.

"Our aim is to offer the community as complete and varied a program as possible within the framework of sound educational policy set by the High School District's governing Board of Trustees," Dambacher stated.

District officials feel that in the final analysis it is community interest and participation which governs the success or failure of any adult program.

Bailey Meets LA Flu Bug; Bug is Victor

Back on the job this week is Wayne Bailey, executive secretary of the Contra Costa County Real Estate Board, who was floored by the flu virus in Los Angeles.

Bailey had arrived in Los Angeles to attend the California Real Estate Association convention, but the "bug" got to him before he got to the sessions.

So, he spent the duration of the convention in bed. The doctor said that he was in danger of catching pneumonia.

The flight home was rough, due to the unpressurized cabin. Bailey contracted an ear infection that had him in even worse condition on arrival.

It was a week before he managed to report in for a full days work.

"I hear that it was avery successful convention," he told The Sun this week.

Sheriff Attacked For Missing Meet By CC Supervisors

Sheriff Harry A. Brown was given a slap on the "back of the hand" by the Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors last Thursday in Martinez for not attending a panel discussion on vice in North Richmond.

A resolution was passed by the board, at the request of First District Supervisor Ivan Goyak, urging Brown either to attend such discussions or to have an authorized spokesman at future meetings dealing with law enforcement problems.

Brown entered an East Bay hospital for observation last Thursday at the time the supervisors were making their recommendation.

John Jagard, undersheriff, explained that Brown had been ill at the time of the meeting. He, himself, was ill with the flu and apparently "the wires got crossed somewhere and Barden Carlson, sheriff's Deputy, in the Richmond substation did not attend."

The supervisors voted to call the sheriff's attention to the matter of missing the North Richmond meeting and another meeting slated to discuss the status of the Sheriff's Reserve Area II force in the Walnut Creek area.

Tax Group Re-Elects B. Howard

Red Cross Class Ends

The Mt. Diablo Chapter of American Red Cross has just finished a First Aid Class started on September 23. The instructor was Frank Williams. He was assisted by Mrs. Frank Williams.

This class class was attended by school bus drivers who are required by law to have a first aid certificate within 60 days of the time they start to work and also school secretaries in the Lafayette and Mt. Diablo Unified School Districts.

Soon after schools started in the fall, there was a big demand for First Aid Courses.

He is a graduate of Tufts University in Jerusalem, and was ordained at the Hebrew Union College in Cincinnati.

"We have long felt that the women of this area would like to avail themselves of some of the cultural advantages available in larger, more metroplitan cities," said Mrs. Harry Schwartz of the League of Jewish Women.

"But it is only now that we have a man of the caliber of Dr. Cohen that we can follow through on such a program. We sincerely hope that many of our friends and neighbors throughout Contra Costa County and the Bay Area will take advantage of this opportunity to enjoy themselves and at the same time be enlightened."

Two AFS Clubs Will Ask Funds On Halloween

In coordination with the Acalanes AFS club, Miramonte High School has recently formed its own American Field Service Club.

The officers, elected at the first official meeting, are:

Ron Brown, president; Linda Lancione, treasurer; Carol Cannon, secretary; Michele Angelo, publicity chairman, and Sandy Brown, program chairman.

This month the main project of both the Acalanes and Miramonte clubs is to launch a big drive on Halloween, next Thursday night.

Orinda and Lafayette have been divided into various sections, and captains have been appointed to head each of these.

The money netted from the drive will be used to bring foreign students to the local high schools and to send our local high school students abroad during the summer.

When you hear a knock at your door next Thursday night and if an AFS member is there, give generously in order to make this drive a success, the two clubs ask.

So far, the response to the Miramonte club has been good, and all its members are hoping their club will be as prosperous as the Acalanes organization.

REVOLUTIONARY NEW "SHOCK-ABSORBER" GIVES EXTRA PROTECTION TO FRAGILE FREIGHT

Careful handling of freight has always been a prime concern of Southern Pacific. Four years ago we asked Stanford Research Institute to help us develop an even better way to cushion boxcar shipments of fragile freight. The result is something we're proud to report.

It is the Hydra-Cushion Underframe freight car, which employs a unique sliding underframe with a hydraulic pressure device to give extra cushioning to fragile shipments while cars are being coupled or are in transit.

350 Cars. We built 350 of these cars—and added "DF" (damage-free) interior loading equipment and roller bearings for good measure—to assure extra protection to shipments of television receivers, bottled goods, glassware, ceramic tile and numerous other fragile products.

The Hydra-Cushion Underframe freight car is an example, we think, of how Southern Pacific uses modern research in our continuing effort to give the finest freight service.

PTA Attacks DA's Stand On Child Molestation

BY NORMAN COLBY

(The following story will be of interest to Orinda residents who may, at some time, be faced with similar problems.

Although the meeting was held in Walnut Creek, many of the principles directly affect Orindans and their children.)

"Why doesn't the district attorney's office prosecute those cases to the limit of the law?" Richard Fickel, public welfare director of the Mt. Diablo PTA Council, inquired during a meeting on child molestation Oct. 15 afternoon.

"We do," replied Leyton Hatch, a representative of the district attorney's branch office in Richmond.

"We think you don't!" Fickel quickly replied, and council members applauded vigorously, near the conclusion of what was considered one of the most important council meetings of the year. It was held at the Walnut Creek Recreation Center.

MRS. THOMAS Haslett, council president, said that District Attorney Francis Collins several weeks ago had accepted an invitation to speak on child molestation at the meeting.

Hatch explained, however, that he was a replacement since Collins had to attend the induction of Thomas Fraga, new superior court judge, that afternoon.

After Hatch discussed a case in Richmond where a nine-year-old boy was allegedly molested by a 25-year-old ex convict, Fickel interrupted a dissertation on penalties by stating: "We of the council have the feeling that the district attorney or the judges do not go to the limit of the law in passing sentence."

He asked about the failure to prosecute, and continued: "Within the legal code, as you explained it, a defendant found guilty of molesting a child may get a maximum of life imprisonment.

"But, isn't it true that the sentencing in terms of the maximum is small percentage wise, and the number of convictions compared to the number of cases reported is also very small?" he asked.

HATCH SAID THAT he could not speak for the court judges, but that in Richmond people "often say we go too far in prosecutions, rather than not far enough."

Fickel pursued his point by saying, "Why can't the district attorney bring some type of equalization to bear, and use the law as established?"

Hatch replied that the district attorney and the judges do not decide how long the offender is to serve in prison or in a mental hospital. An "adult authority" decides that within the maximums and minimums set for each offense.

The decision depends on the record of the inmate while confined, he added.

EARLIER HE HAD commented that it will be a long time before students of human relations find "the punishment to fit the crime." The average confinement term for a person sentenced for a lewd act with a child is four years plus a few months, he estimated.

"Where shall our PTA's bring pressure to bear?" Flickel asked.

The attorney replied that the state legislature should be contacted, and that law enforcement officials are receptive to suggestions.

Mrs. T. W. Marston, Council juvenile protection chairman, told Hatch that for her group to properly study the problem, she will need statistics—like the number of child molestations reported, the number that go to trial and the number of defendants who are allowed to change their pleas to lesser ones, like assault and battery.

SHE INDICATED that such figures may tell why sex offenders are able to repeat their crimes numerous times.

Hatch promised that he will take these questions back to Martinez, and that the statistics will be prepared.

He added, "I believe the consensus is, then, that you believe in more exacting punishment?" Listeners nodded assent.

But one mother interjected her view that sex offenders are mentally ill, and that prison does no good, and often makes the person more confirmed in his ways.

MEDICAL AND psychiatric attention are necessary, she insisted.

The suffering which the child-victim must go through during a trial was a main concern of the mothers present.

One mother said, "The child has to answer questions on the stand for six to 10 hours. If my child were ever molested, I would not take the matter to trial, but would take the child to a psychiatrist.

"More harm is done to the child during the trial than as a result of the act itself," she declared.

ANOTHER MOTHER asked if it is possible to hold the trial in a closed court, where the child is not made a "spectacle."

Hatch replied that the court can be cleared only on the request of the defendant, and even then, the press cannot be barred. A judge in Sonoma barred the press in a murder trial, but it was reversed in the higher court, he said.

He continued, "However, child molestation and narcotics juries seem to be very prosecution minded these days, and it would be wise for the defendant usually to ask for a judge trial without jury. It is his word against that of the child, and the burden of proof actually tends to fall on the defendant, although legally it is on the prosecution.

"The legal basis comes from the theory that it is better to let a hundred guilty persons go free than to convict one innocent person," he said.

"Many times a charge of a lewd act with a child under 14 is reduced to a lesser charge of contributing to delinquency of a minor, a misdemeanor, to lessen the hardship for the child," Hatch said.

Fickel in introducing Hatch said that there is a flurry of interest when an "unfortunate accident" happens but between "accidents" very little is done about it.

Council President Mrs. Haslett said after the meeting that it has not been decided whether they will again invite District Attorney Collins to a future meeting to talk about the problem.

Solution to 'Regional' Library's Cost is Cited

An amendment to the State Education Code which went into effect on September 11 may solve the problem of how to finance the proposed $900,000 "regional" reference library, recommended by the Grand Jury for Central Contra Costa County.

The 775,000 square foot library has been suggested for use in reference work, and as a distribution depot serving community libraries.

It seemed earlier this year that it would be a long process saving the money from reserve county library funds.

HOWEVER, the California assembly before adjourning passed an amendement which allows county boards of supervisors to levy up to 30 cents per $100 assessed valuation for library purposes.

The absolute limit since 1911 has been 10 cents, and the library tax this year went from 8.7 cents to 10 cents.

The 30 cent tax is permissive, County Librarian Bertha Hellum emphasized, in an interview requested by The Sun.

She said, "It is possible that next year, the supervisors may take an extra cent or two above the old limit.

"BUT THIS DOES provide a means by which the big library might be financed out of the operating tax, either all at once, or by stages each year," she added.

The state action was a final piece of good news for the librarians and the residents who favor all-out support of the expanding library system in the county.

They already had won the battle to get the Board of Supervisors to raise the tax from 8.7 cents to 10 cents. This came after an eleventh-hour direct appeal to the board in the final hours of budget consideration by members of several library associations in the county.

The final result is that a total budget of $558,453 was arrived at. This does not take into account additional costs of health and welfare funds, retirement funds, and an increase of 4.7 per cent for library salaries.

This adds another $33,000 to expenses.

ESTIMATED TOTAL income for the 1957-58 fiscal year is $546,058 from the tax, $23,949 from fees and fines, and $8220 from the general fund for county librarian's salary.

This totals $578,227, which is short of the amount needed to cover the budget and also the retirement fund costs.

Here is where the unappropriated reserve left over from last year is "put to work." Totaling $47,795, it will pay the additional bill with some to spare.

The "some to spare" will probably be saved, perhaps for hiring an architect for the "regional" library, providing the supervisors authorize the move.

THE REGIONAL library is next on the list after the county health department building, which has been completed, Mrs. Hellum said.

The new library would be for service to other libraries only, and for reference work.

THE ASIASTIC INFLUENCE . . . One Father, subbing at a room mtg. for Mother, who was down w/the Flu, came home to report in full detail to the whole family. More than a few discrepancies were noted and Dear Dad, how sad, had spent the entire hr. and a half in the WRONG classroom!

SCOUT'S HONOR! A perfect way to celeb U.N. Day

'TWAS UNITED NATIONS DAY yesterday and Miramonte auditorium, decked out in colorful flags of all countries, looked like a League of Nations, the very appropriate decor for the youthful fashion tea sponsored by American Field Service, a kick-off to the forthcoming fund drive to support the program here.

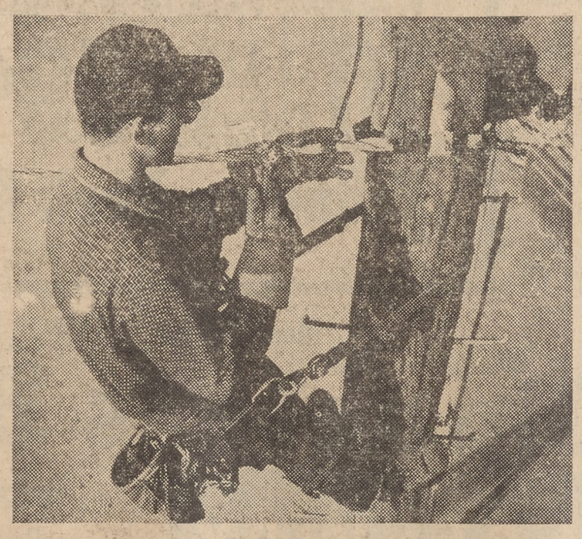
The Leroy Bromleys chatting w/Greg Stahle . . . The Frank McMillans joining the crowd at the Ted Schillings' table, THEIR late arrival due to escorting dghtr. to HER dance first.

Jean and Joe Downs doing some tricky terpischore, a yr. since Jean's really kicked up her heels, due to a leg injury . . . AT THEIR table, a group earlier entertained by the couple at their Sleepy Hollow home for supper included the Robert Pridemores (he's pres. MPC), Del and Yvonne Courtney, Jean and Bud Courson, Dorothy and Art Lundblad, the George Merriams, Kay and Mark Smith and newcomers to Los Arbalos, Mildred and Ed Ursin. Also on hand were Peg and Bill Young w/their tall attractive niece Ann and her husband Lewis Allison, who came over from SF for the eve.

Hospitalized early this week for minor surgery was Edith Scatena, who will be home again but probably in absentia when the Orinda Country Club holds their "My Fair Lady" dinner dance tomorrow evening, in which Edith had a deft hand in the elegant decorations. Dorothy and Art Lundblad will chairman the evening, at which guests will undoubtedly depart w/th wail that "They could have danced ALL night."

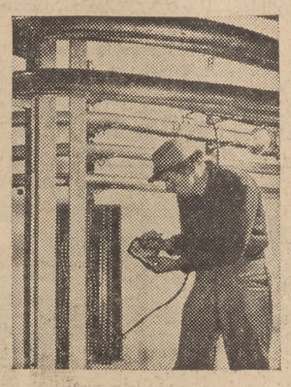
WHAT'S DOING

Howard Greenhalgh, your Telephone Manager in Orinda



The way things are growing around here, we're plenty busy putting in more phones. So, we keep on the lookout for time-savers. Like the little "watchcase" this telephone man's working with. This case connects the wire from a house to certain types of telephone cables outdoors. Makes the job a whole lot simpler. The case has a clamp on the back. So you can put it where you want it in a jiffy. Inside, it has a couple of tiny posts. You tie your wires around them. Then, snap on the top—and the job's done. Takes about 5 minutes. Time-savers like this help us bring more service to more people. In less time, too.

* * * * *



When you hear air hissing out of an auto tire, first thing you do is find the leak and have it fixed. Same thing goes for some telephone cables. They've got compressed air in them. The pressure keeps out moisture. And believe me, we keep close tabs on this pressure, too. When air starts to escape, instruments let us know right away. They tell us just about where the leak is, too. That way we can patch it up before it affects your phone calls.

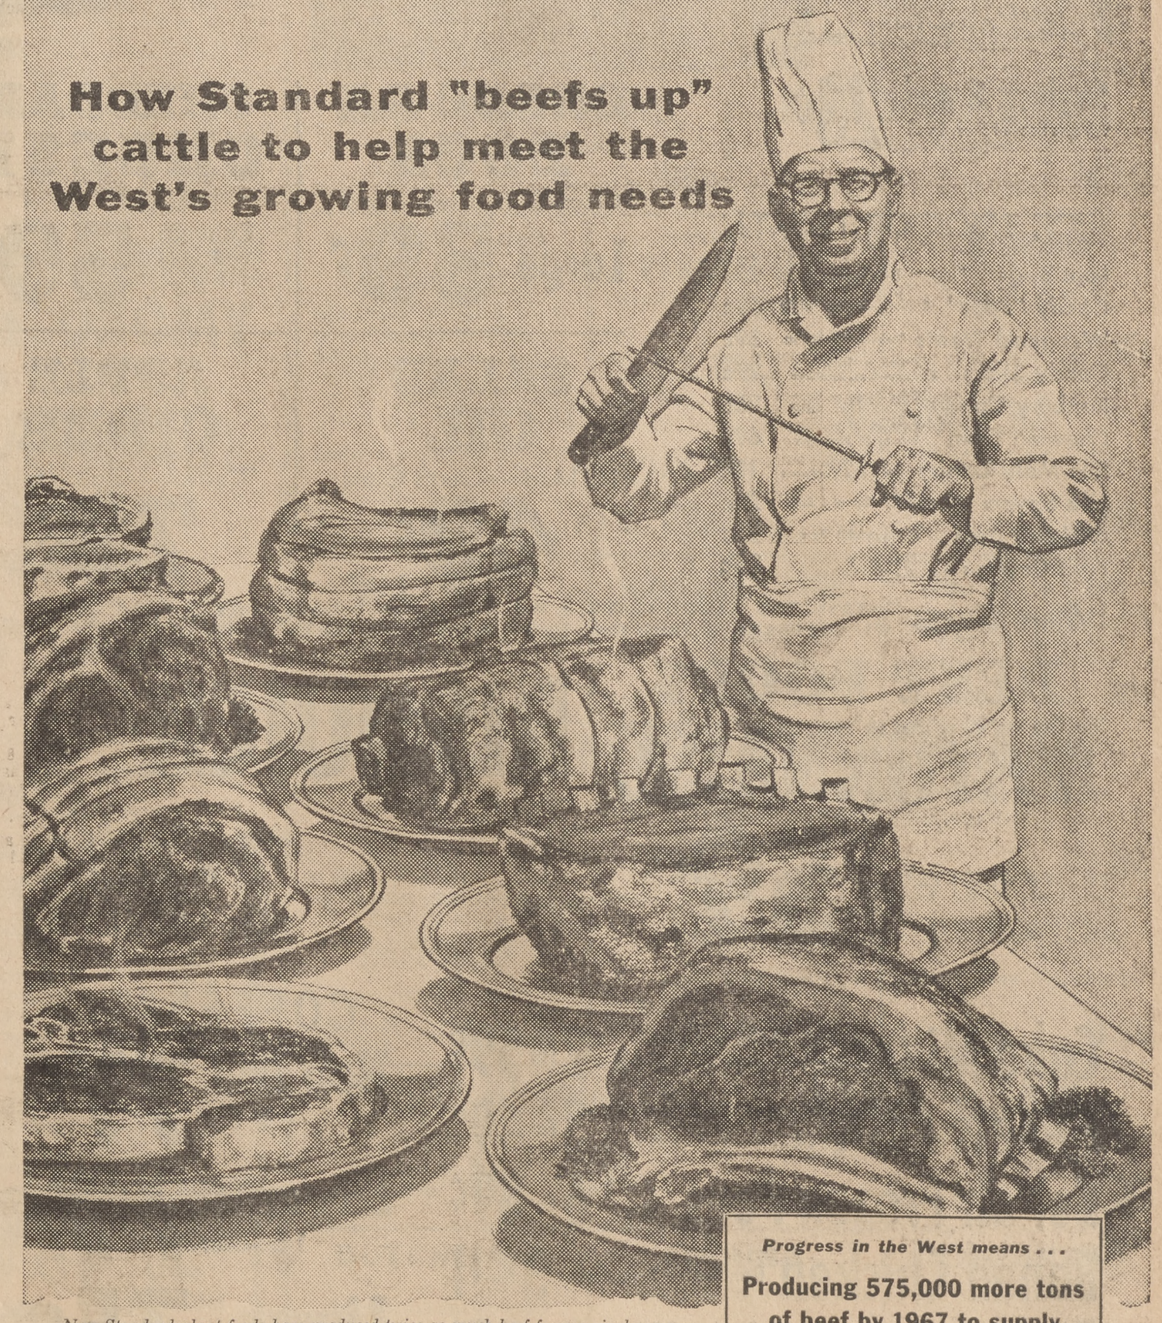
How Standard "beefs up" cattle to help meet the West's growing food needs



New Standard plant foods have produced twice as much beef from a single acre—enough extra beef to supply an average person for a solid year.

Who eats the most meat in the U.S.? You do—surveys show Westerners top the nation in meat consumption. Now Standard helps ranchers satisfy that hearty appetite with chemically blended plant foods,* so economical they can be used to turn unproductive foothills into profitable pasture-land.

These new blends of essential plant-growth elements come from a $16 million Standard plant opened just a year ago. Grasslands they have enriched are now producing up to twice as much beef per acre. Farmers find them equally productive on many other crops. For you they promise tastier, more nutritious meals for every dollar you spend on food.

Progress in the West means . . .

Producing 575,000 more tons of beef by 1967 to supply our† growing population

Local Dental Health Meet Is Scheduled

A Workshop on dental health will be held at the Walnut Creek Presbyterian Church, on November 4 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., it was announced today by Dr. David N. Cook, chairman of the Dental Health Education Committee of the Contra Costa Dental Society, one of the sponsoring groups.

The purpose of the workshop is to help those engaged in health activities in the schools and the communities to learn more about dental health with a view to improving over-all program planning, according to Dr. Cook.

The Dental Health Workshop will include health chairmen, dental health chairmen and preschool health chairmen of Parent-teachers, dentists, physicians and others.

The workshop will include a brief report on the dental health of Contra Costa children and discussions on what's new in nutrition, an evaluation of dentifrices, dental care and fluoridation.

Other sponsors of the workshop are the 32nd District-California Congress of Parents and Teachers and the Health Department of Contra Costa County.

GOP Leaders Plan $100 Plate Feast

Contra Costa County Republican leaders met October 15 in Richmond's Hotel Don to plan their first $100-a-plate dinner since February, 1956.

A. W. Mohr, of Diablo, president of California Spray Chemical Corporation, Richmond accepted the general chairmanship of the dinner.

The event is scheduled for 7 p.m., Thursday, November 14, in Diablo Country Club, Diablo. It will include a somewhat new feature for fund-raising dinners. Couples may attend at a price of $110.

Lindsey Spight, chairman of the County's United Republican Finance Committee, announced that proceeds will not be used in any competitive primary campaign. All profits will be earmarked to support the campaigns of Representative John F. Baldwin, of Contra Costa and Solano Counties, and Assembly candidates from the Tenth and Eleventh Districts.

The program speaker is to be announced in the near future, and ticket sales begin immediately under the direction of Contra Costa's United Republican Finance Committee.

Get Daffodil Bulbs Now For Your Spring Garden!

By the Gardener

ALTHOUGH SPRING does not begin officially until mid-March, many Californians begin to get spring fever when they sight the first lovely yellow daffodils. The California Association of Nurserymen notes that this is the best time for home gardeners to select bulbs to bring spring into their gardens next year. These bulbs must be in before November 15.

Daffodils can be planted to provide continual loveliness from February through May.

To accomplish this, the home owner chooses from the various types of daffodils which provide bloom at different times. The first species to bloom is the cyclamineus hybrids, represented by February Gold.

This is followed by the large yellow trumpet varieties, the most well-known being the King Alfred. This named variety has become so popular that many people do not realize the wide variety of daffodils which are available.

After the large yellow trumpets bloom, come the large cupped varieties, the small cups, the pure white poeticus types, the jonquil hybrids and finally the trinandus hybrids.

MOST NURSERIES regularly carry from 15 to 50 varieties of daffodils from which gardeners may choose. As with all bulbs, most local nurserymen carry colored photographs to show home gardeners what to expect.

This is the big advantage of all bulbs: what the gardener expects to see, he does see. The sureness of all bulbs, especially the easy-to-care-for daffodils, is a feature which has long endeared bulbs to California gardeners.

Since the entire plant is contained by the bulb cover, it remains only for soil, weather and the gardener's watering to bring forth lovely blooms.

Daffodils should be planted in well-drained soil in a sunny part of the garden. When planning for landscaping effects, remember that the trumpets will point toward the sun. The soil should be cultivated before the bulbs are planted. If the soil needs enriching, dig some bone meal into the soil before planting. Avoid the use of manure, as it may damage the bulbs.

DAFFODIL BULBS should be set about 8 inches apart at a depth two and one-half times their size, taking into account the texture of the soil. In heavy soil only about 4 or 5 inches of soil should cover the bulbs; in light soil about 6 to 8 inches is necessary.

If there is room over bulbs for cultivation between seasons, the gardener will be able to delay digging up the bulbs for quite a few years.

Daffodils can be combined with other plants in the garden to obtain lovely effects. Placed in front of evergreen shrubs or combined with other bulbs or summer annuals, daffodils add a cheerful touch to the garden. Any gardener who can afford the space should mass large numbers of bulbs; it is these "crowds" of daffodils that really show the flowers at their best.

Container-grown daffodils have proved very popular in recent years. (They can also be forced for early bloom indoors, although this can only be done for one season with the same bulbs.) Planting in containers has gained in popularity largely because the plants can be kept out of prominence when not in bloom.

Daffodils are among the oldest cultivated flowers in the world. The name "daffodil" is the common name for the Narcissus family, examples of which are found growing wild in Europe, Asia and North Africa. The long history of cultivation which stands behind the daffodil is sure evidence of its good qualities.

League Picks Constitution Chairman

Mrs. John H. Selley, president of the League of Women Voters, has announced the appointment of Mrs. Owen Nelson, of Danville as chairman of the State study item on the Constitution.

In compliance with the League's policy of nonpartisanship, Mrs. Nelson has officially resigned as an officer of a partisan group in order to accept this new appointment.

None of the league leaders during their terms of League office have any affiliation with political party, activity or active participaton in any group supporting candidates.

Further recent Board appointments include Mrs. Guy Harris of Concord, secretary; Mrs. Eugene Lauer of Danville, treasurer; Mrs. David Doyle of Lafayette, publications chairman; and Mrs. Louis Lazaroff of Orinda, continuing responsibilities chairman.

Here's Your New Garden Checklist

Here's your Garden Checklist for this week:

1. Lift gladiolus bulbs, dry them off and dust them with insecticide. Store them for the winter.
2. It's a good idea to buy large top grade bulbs when you select your tulips and daffodils for spring bloom. They'll usually give the largest and best blooms.
3. To keep the garden from having a drab winter appearance, shrubs with showy berries are a good buy. Pyracantha, various varieties of holly and cotoneasters are attractive berry-bearing plants.
4. Use a poison bait for slugs and snails. Ask your nurseryman for help and advice.
5. Nursery-started spring annuals are available now: pansies, pot marigold, stock.

Nature's Whimsy Causes Problems

The whimsy of nature which recently drenched northern California with unseasonal rainfall, disturbed some plans of man and affected various processes of nature.

One of the processes of nature effected by the rainfall is fly breeding, according to officials of the Contra Costa Mosquito Abatement District.

In the late summer of any year widely scattered organic matter is present which is dry and will not prodce flies. This same organic matter when wetted or moistened by early rain is an ideal place for fly breeding—and flies are taking full advantage of this unexpected turn of events and are raising large families to harass their human companions.

Any vegetable matter such as piled lawn clippings, leaves or walnut hulls and any animal or poultry manure which may have been dry before the rains and of no interest to flies may now be attractive places for their development.

To avoid flies from such sources the material should be spread thinly to dry, cultivated into the soil or covered with a plastic tarp, according to district officials.

Anyone who has a large quantity of material which may produce flies or anyone who may be in doubt as to an effective remedy is urged to contact the Mosiquto District.

Flies are sensitive to weather changes and in the fall and early winter are more prone to seek shelter. They are especially restive in periods of low air pressure preceding a rain storm and may become a real nuisance by concentrating around homes.

Diablo Artists Will Hear Talk

Thomas Leighton, known internationally as a portrait painter and artist, is to be the guest lecturer for the Diablo Art Association Monday. His topic will be "A Demonstration of Portrait Painting."

Born in Canada, Leighton has had 28 one-man shows in the U. S. and Canada, as well as Great Britain and Denmark. In 1937, he held a private showing of his paintings for the King and Queen of Great Britain while they made a visit to the Northern Province. His paintings are in private and public collections both here and abroad.

The general public is cordially invited to attend this general meeting of the Diablo Art Association. It takes place in the Walnut Creek Recreation Center and starts at 8:00 p.m. A coffee gallery will follow the lecture.

In conjunction with the Adult Education Program, D.A.A. members Katy Madsen and Yvonne Herbert are holding class on Thursday mornings from 9 to 12 in the Walnut Creek Recreation Center. Mrs. Madsen of Walnut Creek, will teach portrait painting and Mrs. Herbert of Concord, will give a general art course covering landscape and still life painting and drawing.

There is a charge of $1.50 covering the nine weeks course.

Girls' Deans Form New Group

Sixteen deans of girls from senior high schools in Contra Costa County have formed an informal group to discuss mutual problems. The group held its first dinner of the courrent school year at the Claremont Hotel last week.

Deans discuss common problems in counseling teenage girls, appropriate dress for girls at school and athletic activities, behavior codes on campus and general administrative details.

In addition to meeting twice each year, the deans' group sponsors an annual Girls' Leadership Conference for girls who head campus activities in the 16 high schools represented by the deans' organization. This year's Girls' Leadership Conference is scheduled for November 14 at Antioch High.

'Home of Own' Being Sought By Dramateurs

The Dramateurs have just completed a successful two-weekend run of their fall production, "Uncle Harry," and are anticipating tryouts in the near future for their first spring play, which is scheduled for the latter part of February.

It has always been the aim of the Dramateurs to give the public top performances, staged and acted in a professional manner.

With the growing membership of the group, they would like to be able to offer little theater fans more top quality plays and longer bookings for each play. Due to the high costs involved in theater rentals, transportation of sets and other technical problems, this group is very limited at the present time, as far as expansion is concerned.

THESE PROBLEMS could be solved, and a splendid community enterprise be established, if the Dramateurs had a "home of their own," Dramateur President James Harris states.

By having a "home" where props and costumes could be stored, rehearsals held and a cozy audience gathered, the Dramateurs would be in a better position to cater to local dramatic needs, he points out.

IF ANYONE has any information concerning a building, store, barn or any place suitable, either for rental or rehabiiitation, he is asked to contact Harris at OL 5-1198 (home phone) or (business phone) LO 9-9212.

A permanent location for the storing of props and costumes is an immediate need," Harris says.

"Will someone be an "angel" and assist a worthy cause which will enhance the entertainment field in your community?" he asks.

HOME NURSING MAY BE a chore to some, but it is a delight to others . . . and some busy people can always find time to help others. A perfect example is Mrs. Geanne Marshall who helps out the Mt. Diablo Chapter of the American Red Cross in spite of the fact that she has six active youngsters of her own. Surrounding Mrs. Marshall are Donald, Kathy and Jim in the top row and Jeff, Susan and Steve in the bottom row. The Mt. Diablo Chapter is now giving a course on home nursing.

UN Day Festivities Ready At Consumers Cooperative

Andreas Korp, Minister of Finance in Austria, will visit the Diablo area during the local observance of United Nations Day primarily supporting the U. N. International Children's Fund tomorrow at the Co-op Center at 1510 Geary Road, according to Don Sanford of Concord, chairman of the event.

Sanford further announced that Dr. Glen Kent, assistant county health officer has consented to serve as -co-chairman for the day long special event.

"I AM PLEASED to accept this responsibility and cooperate in the plans for your United Nations Day. Many of us in the community have been hoping for a group to channelize the widespread interest shown by so many organizations and individuals in one or more aspects of the United Nations.

Plans being arranged for the event should have interest for all, and we look forward to the community responding to this initial effort which we trust will be an auspicious beginning for an annual event of this kind. No one can ignore the appeal of the world's needy children or bypass supporting UNICEF," Dr. Kent said.

All proceeds on the sale of UNICEF Christmas cards and souvenir items such as pens, bracelets, cocktail napkins, place mats—will go directly to that organization. Other specialized agencies of the U. N. will be dramatized with displays, literature and posters. Hours will be 9:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.

YOUNGSTERS IN THE area will be encouraged to make Hallowe'en a more meaningful one when they go "Trick or Treating" by collecting pennies for less fortunate children. Kits have been made available at the Co-op through Mrs. Carter Collins, Northern California Director of UNICEF, with a nominal charge of 75 cents.

The kits contain 25 armbands and band for 'jingle boxes' and other supplies for the collection of pennies that will go towards sending surplus food to hungry children.

Many organizations interested in advancing the prestige as well as increasing the understanding of the United Nations and it various agencies have been invited to participate. These include the Mt. Diablo Chapter of the United Nations; American Association for the U. N.; Y. M. C. A.; League of Women Voters; American Association of University Women; Pleasant Hill and Concord Rotary Clubs; Mt. Diablo and Acalanes Chapters of the United World Federalists, etc.

Members serving on the arrangements committee include Mesdames Allen Howe, John Stock and Estelle Girande of Walnut Creek; Mrs. Roger Owen and Charles Mowry of Pleasant Hill; and Mrs. Barbara Champion of Danville.

EMPLOYMENT

Motor vehicle manufacturing employed 800,000 workers in the United States during 1956. This represented a drop of 96,500 from the 1955 level.

High School Dances? Yes, It's That Time Again!

What are our high school youngsters doing after football games? Do they step out for a bite to eat, a soft drink, and then come home by 10 p.m.?

That is pretty hard to do if you are a young person, it's a Friday night, and you're "with the crowd."

Of course, there's nothing wrong with the bite to eat, but what do you do after that?

THERE CERTAINLY isn't much to be had in the way of organized recreation in our area for our high school youngsters . . . that is, after football games.

Stop and think back on your high school days. Chances are, that you played your games in the afternoon after school, and then a dance was held . . . probably in the gym . . . that evening.

But in Walnut Creek, Orinda, Lafayette, Pleasant Hill and other communities in our area, the games are played at night. This is a very good thing in many respects. It gives the parents and friends of the youngsters a chance to see them play, and to participate in their activities.

But where do we go from here.

Because of a league ruling, dances cannot be held in school facilities after athletic contests. This is a district league ruling, and there seems to be very little appeal, although The SUN has argued for a change in this policy for years.

LET'S FACE IT. The schools are the logical places to hold such post-game entertainment. The over-all ruling of the league is wrong.

Of course, things are being done. There is an excellent teen-age program being developed in Orinda under the auspices of the school district and director Frank Isola.

The Lafayette Junior Chamber of Commerce rallied to the occasion recently and sponsored a "street dance" for Acalanes youngsters after a football game.

This is a good example of what organized groups can do in a community when they feel the need for action . . . but there should be no need. The schools have the facilities, and the parents and teachers . . . or the PTA's could certainly handle the arrangements.

THE WALNUT CREEK and Pleasant Hill Recreation Districts have done many fine things for our youngsters, but they have their problems . . . and they don't have the facilities or the opportunity that the schools do in this respect.

Acalanes, Miramonte, Pleasant Hill and Las Lomas should get in and do the job where the need is great and they have the equipment.

The Staff Corner

And Now, Youth Bites Back!

By JEANNE BETTERSWORTH

(This week's staff corner was written by a "teenager." It was turned over to a guest columnist in order to give the young people a chance to answer some of the statements made in last week's Staff Corner regarding an assembly held recently at one of our local high schools. This column is a result of the young people's discussion among themselves since that time, and reflects their opinions as gathered and presented by one of their representatives . . . Ed. note.)

In a recent high school assembly, five newspapers "stood accused" and were asked to defend their policies concerning juveniles.

Originally, the discussion was planned to stimulate the interest of the students in their local publications. To do this, a poll was taken in which the students were asked for opinions of their treatment by the press. An overwhelming majority felt strongly that both the press and those influenced by the press were maintaining an unfair attitude toward the "teenager."

Lead questions asked by the student panel at the assembly were taken from the poll and the pressmen were then allowed to defend themselves.

THE DISCUSSION took a sharp turn, however, when in defense of his own paper, one of the newsmen contended that teenagers may have the wrong attitude toward the press. He went on to say that juvenile crime stories are ranked in importance by standards equal to those of adult crime.

As "minors" teenagers have the security of knowing that they will be protected by society until they are of age. A dependence on this knowledge is, of course, created.

BUT THIS PROTECTION exists only where names are concerned. Society is not unaware of the facts, only of the individuals concerned.

Young aduts did not request this protection, and in the poll a surprising percentage felt that the names of juvenile criminals should be printed.

Over and over again, every young person fights and begs to be treated as an adult. Teens do not ordinarily ask what they know they should not rightfully expect.

In their homes, they ask only to be allowed to set their own hours, to buy their own clothes, budget their own money, to buy their own car. In other words, they want to feel as though they're on their "own."

In the high schools, youth is very well treated. Seldom are they refused anything within reason.

They are taught and asked to take care of themselves, to accept responsibility. Student councils, elected by the general student body, budget and plan for expenditures of over $10,000 annually.

Many students work throughout the community at outside jobs obtained for them through their school.

It is only when the students go "outside" their schools that they expect to be refused all requests, to be pushed around.

FOR SEVERAL YEARS, local students have asked for street dances following their athletic activities. They have been looking for a place to get together and share opinions, ideas and experiences.

But these dances were refused to them because local authorities felt that they would "incite trouble." And so, last Friday night, one of the schools held their street dance anyway. Choosing a nearby grocery store parking lot, over 250 young people gathered, both students and graduates, of all calibers. They placed their cars in a group, turned on their radios, and then danced, talked, laughed and joked.

Only two adults were present, the parents of one of the students. They remained in their family car and observed the activity, enjoying themselves thoroughly.

It is commonly felt among those young people that their dance will be frowned upon. They don't expect the authorities to look at their dance as proof that they can work successfully. And they won't be surprised if the one they hold tonight is broken up.

Most young people think more than they are usually given credit for. In this area, every high school has run an editorial against segregation, and received the wholehearted support of the student body. This is in spite of the parental prejudice that exists in many of their homes.

All that teenagers ask is a chance to use their own judgment, to try out their ideas, and to learn from experience as the generations before them have done.

Next to Each Every Queen There's A Jack Standing

This column was going to be about salesmen until I got off on a tangent. (a tangent is somewhat like an Edsel—it has no tail fins either!)

And, I'm writing under the worst conditions possible:

At my right hand is a glass of tomato juice spiked with Worcestershire Sauce and I've got the coffee pot going. Simply wonderful! It is 11 o'clock and the deadline that I've got to make is 12

Why has all this transpired?

I WENT TO THE East Bay Grocers Association Stag last night —that's why! Oh! Did I have fun!

I met guys there that you all know. Guys like Tony Pereira, manager of a well known food market in Walnut Creek. And I shook hands with the Mayor of Antioch.

They had a wonderful program.

Oh,well!

Someone has said that:

"Nothing happens until a sale is made!"

This is most certainly true!

Where would Columbus have been if a sail hadn't been made? As a matter of fact, where would Isabella have been? He wouldn't have had to hock her jewels if a sail hadn't been made and Christopher wouldn't have discovered America and we wouldn't have income tax, Asiatic Flu or worries about Sputnik.

And we wouldn't have two Columbuses for a Columbus Day Parade!

I UNDERSTAND that there was a Queen wandering around over here somewhere. Now, a Queen is always near some Jack (at least in all the new decks of cards I've bought). I just hope that this Queen wanders back to wherever she comes from without taking too much Jack from US taxpayers!

I'm not in favor of increasing the flow of money from this nation to other so-called under-developed nations. Not when I look at my withholding tax statement!

Read where hundreds of Texans are "fleeing storm"!

This surprises me, I would have thought that Texans would blow right back—putting the storm to rout!

To Hold Region Confab at ECC

Tomorrow the annual Northern Regional Conference of Alpha Gamma Sigma, junior college honor society, will be held at East Contra Costa Junior College, Golf Links Road, Concord. Twenty-five chapters will participate.

The theme for the conference is "Interpreting the Junior College in the High School." Dr. George Madison, dean of instruction at ECC, will give the welcome address and Dick Kaye, president of Associated Students, will welcome the participants on the behalf of the students.

The keynoteaddress will be given by Mirko Milicevich, assistant dean of men at the University of California.

Round table discussions will take place on various topics in connection with the main theme. Discussion topics will point up the help that a high school student can expect in the following area:

What is the high school student's opinion of the junior college? What is the parental influence on the high school student's opinion? What is the community influence and what is the function of public relations between the high school and the junior college?

Letters to The Editor

FLUORIDE SOLUTIONS

I am glad to note Mr. Kahn admits that the Water Works Journal articles states that fluoride solutions "have been found to destroy steel pipe very rapidly." But he deplores the fact that this was printed some years ago and he tries to imply that since that time all is just ginger-peachy at the corrosive fluoride-mixing plants in our water departments.

Not so, Water Works Journals have carried many articles since that time describing the difficulties with accurate dosage, the constant deadly danger to employees, the many precautions that must be taken with regard to the hazards of dust when emptying barrels, blower systems to be used, interferences with accurates analyses of fluoride content, answers to liability problems, need for materials that won't corrode so rapidly, interferences with industry and the ever-present problem of corrosion from various fluoride solutions.

DESPITE ALL the difficulties water works engineers have had with equipment failures, corrosion and the need for extreme care to prevent over-injection of this poisonous substance, Mrs. Leland tells us that the American Water Works Association has approved fluoridation, the intimation being that they recommend or endorse fluoridation of all public water supplies.

Nothing is further from the truth. The so-called "approval" prepared by a committee headed by Dr. A. P. Black, a chemist (his son sells fluoridating equipment), merely recites that "water departments or companies may properly participate in a program of fluoridation" in communities where there is is strong public demand and public health authorities have approved and that they should "follow through willingly" in such cases. Does this sound like A.W.W.A. adovactes fluoridation?

As of September 1, 1957, approximately 850 towns have defeated fluoridation; 95 have thrown it out after a trial run. The main reasons: corrosion of pipes, breakdown of equiment, and citizens' complaints.

MRS. JOHN JEFFREY

BALDWIN RECORD

Dear Editor:

In these times of ineffectual Congresses, it has been disappointing to me that more has not been made of the almost unique voting record of our own representative to Congress, the Hon. John Baldwin.

The only reference to this remarkable record that I have seen is a very small item tucked in the back pages of your paper and one other newspaper.

In view of the fact that Mr. Baldwin is the only California representative and one of only 11 from the entire nation to hold a 100 per cent voting record in Congress, do you not feel that at least some editorial comment is forthcoming?

THE ACCOMPLISHMENTS of the past Congressional session are so few and so disappointing as to make one wonder whether the session were necessary at all. Perhaps of our duly elected representatives had taken their responsibility more to heart and been present during the discussions and voting on serious issues, more of value might have been accomplished.

When I vote for a representative, I expect him to be just that and be actively present in the House when he is supposed to be.

I have no doubt that Mr. Baldwin feels he is doing only what he was elected to do, but obviously he does not have much company. I should like him to know that at least one of his constituents appreciates his worthy efforts.

Under The Sun

Calling Dr. Kildare, We Need Your Help Today!

By HERMAN SILVERMAN

Arriving at the old homestead last Friday, I saw this note pinned to the front door:

"Dear Dr. Silverman,

"Flu shots are well and good but you forgot to knock on wood. Love and sneezes, Eleanor, Mark, Dan and Janet."

I didn't get the idea until I walked into the back bedroom—to find Eleanor in bed with the flu.

"It can't be," I shouted. "You've had an Asian flu shot and the Virus A and B flu shot. You can't have flu!"

Good wife Eleanor calmly declared that the thermometer must be wrong and the other flu symptoms were joking.

The case is diagnosed . . .

By Monday I had diagnosed her case—California flu. Incidentally, I haven't reported to you that Dan and Janet had flu the week before. They had one flu shot each.

So what does all this prove?

Well, Dr. Silverman will admit that flu shots are not invincible. There are too many different kinds of flu bugs flying around. I insist, however, that a flu vaccination is a good precaution and you should take one if you can.

Next time, however, I will consult with my colleague—Dr. Kildare.

I have a handful of notes and clips, so let's get to work:

A problem is solved

Here's a piece of paper with the words "tackle football" written on it. Oh, yes, I remember.

Have you parents had trouble with your young sons wanting to play tackle football on the front lawn? We have. Mark, 11, and Dan, 9, became very unhappy when we said no. Of course, they pointed out that some of the neighborhood kids were playing tackle. And why couldn't they?

I investigated and learned that most of the parents didn't know the kids were playing tackle—and did not approve. Some of the boys were only 7, while some of the 12 and 13-year-olds sometimes were in the game. Eleanor talked to a neighbor, Roy Mangini, who was formerly a high school football coach, and he emphatically said it was not good for young kids.

Well, the outcome is the kids are not playing tackle. They are playing "flag"—which I think is even harder. The kids carry two pieces of cloth, one for each of their two back pockets. The ball carrier is stopped when an opponent pulls a flag from his back pocket. And this is not easy. They are playing this at school, too. The kids enjoy it—and so the problem has been solved.

I don't think we should make sissies out of our boys. We keep a pair of boxing gloves around the house. Last week-end our two boys had fun pounding the devil out of each other.

A problem is not solved

Speaking of children—here's a news report that made me stop and think:

Youngsters just don't have the chance to let off steam these days, according to Dr. William J. Von Lackum, director of the Gailor Psychiatric Hospital's Child Guidance Clinic in Memphis, Tennessee.

There are laws against shooting BB guns and firecrackers in most states, he pointed out.

"Where's a boy going to dig his cave today?" he asked.

"You can't say it's neurotic when a boy wants to run off and go fishing. Two of the world's best known 'juvenile delinquents' were Tom Sawyer and Huckleberry Finn."

Development in a child, Von Lackum explained, is development of certain motor skills, emotional controls, social capacities and other factors. This plan was laid many, many years ago and children are the same as then.

"But," added Von Lackum, "the world isn't."

There are getting to be fewer lots in which to play ball.

He also pointed out that even after school jobs, so plentiful when today's adults were children, are scarce now.

"I'm not calling for a 'back to nature' movement," he said. "What is needed is interested adult leadership. And that doesn't mean adult domination."

Von Lackum suggested that a police-supervised rifle range, for example, would provide a healthy outlet for young energy and emotion.

Adults should discuss the problem and try to come up with some fresh ideas, keeping in mind that what is normal for a child may not appear normal to a grownup.

On The Lighter Side

by INA BLIESNER
YE 4-3818

Hello again! I hear that plaudits go to Mary Jane and Ken Caldwell for the organizing of a highly successful "Just For Fun" party held by the Larks the other night.

Missed by all present were Jackie and Tom Jacobsen who were home dusting off the "welcome mat" for the senior Jacobsens, who were arriving that day after having spent six months touring the continent.

Jackie and Tom, incidentally, are finally enjoying their oft postponed "summer" vacation. Four yongsters seem to have the unhappy faculty of having upsets one at a time instead of all at onve.

From the oohs and aahs eminating from Marge Ageno's house a few nights ago, the baby shower gifts received by Billie Campbell must have really been somthing!

Lovely weather, people . . . fine time!

The "Kick off to Fall Fashions" sponsored by the Hummingbirds was blessed right from the start with the best possible weather. Guests assembled in the lovely gardens of the Tom Bond home in Saranap — where the rich fall colors really glowed. The models, who were chosen from all of the Therapy Center units, paraded around the large pool and among the magnolia and oak trees which encircle the area.

Refreshments were served before AND after the fashion show and water ballet which was presented by the Soltau Swim School. Performers in this delightful performance were Sharon Stanton (who did a most unusual solo called "Bullfight"), Nancy Stevens and Judy Balmand. The clothes from Irene Thies's shop were, as always, stunning.

JUST TO MENTION A FEW — opening the show was Mrs. Ridgway Woodburn wearing a striking toreador outfit which consisted of a soft beige blouse and multi colored trousers; Mrs. Raymond Williams wore the same type of outfit—the blouse a deep red nylon jersey and the toreador pants brilliantly striped; Mrs. James Fernhoff lookesd as if she were ready for Golden Gate Fields (even if IT isn't) in a tweed skirt of several shades of brown and a coffee colored silk shirt — plus the best looking dark brown leather accessories; the Hummingbirds' own Nora (Mrs. Robert) Cook (who's hair had been "tweeded" for the occasion) modeled a dress which, appropriately, had been named "Tweed."

MRS. CHARLES BOWERS looked trim and terrific in a grey herringbone striped dress of jersey. Dreamy organ music in the background added the final touch.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Hendrick have returned from a family reunion (on the way they did some salmon fishing in Seattle) in Kellogg, Idaho. The occasion was the golden wedding anniversary of Mrs. Hendrick's sister and brother-in-law, the J. L. Moores.

This was the first time that the families had been together in 14 years — so it was quite an event.

Vacationing at Coronado (thanks to a Structural Engineering convention) were the Russ Graffs.

Mrs. Risa Rhodes, who is a very active member of the Arabian Horse Association of Northern California, has been busy with plans for holding classes at the Antioch Fair Grounds.

Nothing like being a grandparent

There is a reason for that smug, proud look Dot and Don Fibush are wearing these days. Daughter Judy presented them with a granddaughter last spring and now another daughter, Beverly, has added a brand new grandson.

The perfect way to end a perfect summer is to fly to Europe for a few weeks — so say Marge and Bill Harris. After "doing" New York, they are currently enjoying the sights of Rome, Paris and Greece — plus all of the tourist attractions in between.

Naturally, Football Parties are in the news. Have you heard of a group of avid fans who call themselves the "C-Devils?" Well, they gathered after a recent Cal game at the Carroll Ranch for a delicious barbecue followed by dancing. Some of those present from this side of the tunnel were the Robert Wisecarvers, the Sam Bradbards (congratulations, Sam, on your wonderful new appointment!) the Larry Dodges, the Dick Davids, the Sanford Terrys, the Stanley Johnsons, and the Jarill Butlers.

ANOTHER GROUP GATHERED at the Richard Knights' home in Pleasant Hill for a reunion. Among those singing the good old traditional songs were the Norman Watsons, the Harry Knights and the Robert Stevens.

Beverly Watson was telling me that she joined Mrs. Harold Robinson and Mrs. Ferd Voelker in making a trip to Chico where they attended a University Women's conference. A most interesting and inspiring experience she reported.

As luck would have it — Mrs. Gerald Ball just HAD to join friend husband on an extended business trip recently. It just happened that they just HAD to stay at the Camel Back Inn in Phoenix and at the Hotel Del Coronado at you know where. Such luck!

By golly, heres' another one!

More grandparent news. Betty and Laurie Littell are experiencing this great happening for the first time, thanks to the Junior Littells. Tiny (four pounds - six ounces!) Annette was born in September.

Another thrilling time is moving to a new home and Helen and Norman Gibson have done just that. They are now living on Foothill Circle in Lafayette. Another, I'm quite sure, is the completion of a new swimming pool.

Jean and Bob Anderson proudly filled theirs the day AFTER the hot spell. They live on Silver Springs Road in Lafayette. Marge and Dick Dole have returned from a wonderful BIG vacation in Texas.

IF YOU ARE NEWLY situated in the Orinda area you might be interested in a group of women who met at the home of Margie (Mrs. James) Nichol on Ardor Drive in Orinda on October 16. They are forming a unit which is solely interested in getting together for enjoyable afternoons. Leisure time for pleasure — sounds good, doesn't it? By calling Francis Bishop, CL 4-4753 or Jane Ganos, CL 4-4862 — you may hear all of the details.

Juniors, Kaye Will Tell Tale Of UNICEF

There will be a special showing of Danny Kaye's film "Assignment Children," at the Park Theater, Lafayette, at tomorrow's matinee as part of the local UNICEF project under the sponsorship of the Lafayette Suburban Juniors.

The technicolor film is an account of Danny's 40,000-mile tour as the United Nations ambassador-at-large to the children of the world. It will provide local moviegoers with an insight into the tremendous job UNICEF (United Nations Children Fund) is performing to improve the health and welfare of children living in the world's underdeveloped areas.

The Juniors, assisted by Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts and Camp Fire Girls, are also sponsoring the UNICEF Trick-or-Treat on Halloween night between 6 and 7.

Women Gardeners Anticipating Benefit Tea

Jack Daniels will be the speaker at a benefit tea the Diablo Women's Garden Club will hold November 8 at 1:30 p.m. at the Diablo Country Club

Daniels is an art teacher at San Mateo Junior College and has given many lectures and demonstrated table arrangements for a number of Eastbay clubs where he has been enthusiastically received.

His arrangements vary from the contemporary to the modern to appeal to all.

This is the one fund raising event of the year for the Diablo Women's Club and the proceeds will be used for highway beautification.

Tickets are $2 and the public is cordially invited.

Tea will be served following the lecture.

The San Francisco Museum of Art has invaded Contra Costa County—or perhaps the reverse is true as local Contra Costa women prepare for the Tours de Decors to be held November 5 through 10.

East Bay chairman for the event is Mrs. Victor Bergeron, who is being assisted by the following chairmen: Mesdames Marshall Shapiro, Orinda; Harry Jackson, Lafayette and Alex D. Lindsay, Walnut Creek.

TICKETS ARE now on sale and may be purchased from any member of the local committee.

The Tour de Decors will be presented by 18 decorators who have revealed plans for unique rooms which they have created solely for the tour.

Not only will there be great variation in the individual sets, with modern and antiques used together, and separately, but the locale of the exhibits themselves will offer interesting comparisons.

EACH DECORATOR'S room will be related to the art of fashion design by modishly gowned models who will wear ensembles especially created by 11 different fashions stores.

The list of decorators and fashion stores includes Charles Ackerman, who is designing an informal living room and Eleanor Forbes of Gump's who will do a conversation room augmented by a gown by Gump's own Gibson Bayh.

WHEN IT COMES TO FASHION, there's nobody like Mrs. East-of-the-Tunnel to demonstrate how it should be done . . . and for a good cause too! Boosting the Tour de Decors, sponsored by the San Francisco Museum of Art Women's Board, are, left to right, Mesdames Harry Jackson, Lafayette; A. D. Lindsay, Walnut Creek; Victor Bergeron, Orinda and Eugene Shurtleff, Orinda. —Sun photo by Harry Maroulas

Orinda Church Director Set To Conduct Confab in WC

REV. MURIEL JAMES will address the Monday workshop of the Central Contra Costa Council of Churches in Walnut Creek.

Mrs. Muriel James, Orinda Community Church director of education and recently ordained minister of the Congregational Church, will address the final in-service education workshops of the Central Contra Costa Council of Churches on Monday night in Walnut Creek.

Rev. James will speak on "The New Testament's Commission—Go Teaching", before an expected 300 Sunday School teachers and administrators of 26 churches belonging to the Council. She will be introduced by Dean Gaudette of Martinez, principal of Holbrook Elementary School, Concord. The session will be held in the Walnut Creek Methodist Church, 1543 Sunnyvale Avenue. Rev. Irvin Askine will pronounce the opening prayer at 7:45 p.m.

Workshops on the intructional problems of six Sunday School age levels will convene at 8:30.

Mrs. Betsy Rodenmayer, associate professor of Christian education at St. Margaret's House Berkeley, will lead the junior group section. She was director of Christian education in southern Ohio for two years before her marriage to Rev. Robert Rodenmayer, since 1952 a professor at the Church Divinity School of the Pacific.

Co-leaders for the youth group will be Wayne A. Hayden and John R. McKinley, both of the staff of East Contra Costa Junior College. Hayden, a psychology instructor and counselor, has had more than 12 years experience in Christian education, serving as director and administrator for various churches, church camps and summer conferences in New York and the South.

McKinley, whose field is the social sciences, spent seven years with the Young Men's Christian Association of San Francisco working with teen-age clubs, both boys and girls. He participated in an experiment for the development of better methods of working with high school youth and developing their leadership training under a grant from the Rosenberg Foundation.

The administrative group will have two leaders, Mrs. Byrle Peterson and Mrs. Jane Dorn, both of Pleasant Hill. Mrs. Peterson, a professional part-time worker for Hillcrest Congregational Church, is currently auditing courses at the Pacific School of Religion. She has had some 20 years in the field of Christian education and church programming.

Mrs. Dorn has occupied posts ranging from church school teacher to the equivalent of director of Christian education during the last 10 years. She is now church school superintendent for St. Michael and All His Angels Episcopal Church of Concord.

Rev. James follows Dr. James B. Pritchard of Berkeley and Rev. G. A. Casaday of Palo Alto as a keynote speaker for the workshop series which began October 14. She is a graduate of University of California and the Church Divinity School of the Pacific and has studied at other theological schools. Prior to her post at Orinda, she was supervising Fellow of Religious Education at the Pacific School of Religion.

Junior College Delegates Head For Los Angeles

Five delegates, headed by Student Body President Richard S. Kaye, formerly of Hayward and now of Pleasant Hill, will attend the California Junior College Student Government Convention, representing East Contra Costa Junior College.

The convention will be held November 14 through 16 at the Sheraton-Palace Hotel in San Francisco. East Contra Costa Junior College is one of seven host schools for delegates from 68 California junior colleges.

East Contra Costa Junior College's 17-member student council selected Kaye, Linda Wilkinson of Lafayette, Beverly Canada of Antioch, John Bankson of Pittsburg, and Michael G. Towle of Danville to represent the college. Erv Metzgar will supervise East Contra Costa delegation.

Bankson, a sophomore, is public relations commissioner for the Club Council representative; iMss Canada, women's representative; and Towle, commissioner of finance.

Plane 'Crashes'; Scouts' Rescue Efforts Pay Off

News of a theoretical "crashed plane" galvanized memebrs of 12 patrol groups of Meridian District Boy Scouts, September 28.

Civil Defense organizers said that te plane had "gone down" in the vicinity of Mt. Diablo.

Camopree Chairman Dr. Harry Misch of Pleasant Hill described to The Sun what happened afterwards.

He said, "Immediately each group plotted the general location of the crash on maps, then using their compasses as guides, they set out in single groups to locate the plane.

"The first group found the 'crashed plane' about one mile away from camp in approximately 40 minutes. Quickly some of them made a thorough examination of the six casualty victims while others checked their position and sent signals to the groups sill searching for the crash.

"Morse code signals were used, as there was not enough sun to heliograph. Sticks were improvised to use for flag waving.

"IN FACT, the best procedures of administering first aid were followed throughout," Misch said.

"Explorer under the supervision of Don Din had simulated a crash, scattering parts of an old plane about the Grotto. Six Explorer were made up as casualties, suffering from severe head and chest injuries, fractures, burns and lacerations."

Ron Nelson, County CD Coordinator for Medical and Health, said, "The calm actions of youth when exposed to the unexpected, such as was provided in this demonstration, show that perhaps it is youth who leads the way.

"This is another example I have observed of our young people's displaying logical reasoning and correct interpretation of procedures. Again I must stress—this activity of youth in the face of adverse comments regarding juveniles, should be observed by more parents, PTA's and service groups."

Sheriff Brown In Hospital

Contra Costa County Sheriff Harry A. Brown is in Oak Knoll Naval Hospital, Oakland, for diagnosis of ailments which have kept him ill for the past several months, according to Ruth Rathke, sheriff's secretary.

He entered the naval hospital last Thursday morning, said John Jagard, undersheriff, and Mrs. Rathke. He is receiving no visitors other than his family and top aides.

Mrs. Rathke noted that Brown is expected to undergo diagnostic tests and remain in the hospital for at least two weeks. Sheriff Brown had told the press that he apparently was suffering from recurrence of malaria contracted during World War II plus complications including an attack of measles and Asian flu.

Pirates to Invade Las Lomas Tonight

Knights, Pittsburg Tussle for League Lead on Gridiron

The Las Lomas Knights rested last week and Pittsburg posted its second league win of the season when they downed the Acalanes Dons 27-7.

Tonight they meet up under the lights of the Las Lomas field and it's an important game to both—in fact to the league since the winner of this one could well pick up the mythical pennant in the process.

PITTSBURG IN two league outings to date defeated Pleasant Hill 7-6 and Acalanes 27-7. In the games, in league play, the Knights took Pacifica 33-14 and two weeks ago with a flu crippled squad measured Diablo 13-7.

This will be the third meeting of th two schools. Pitt won both games in previous years by narrow margins and each time Pitt wound up in first place and Las Lomas in the runner-up spot.

Coach George DeKlotz's big problem is getting his quarters ready.

Steve Moore has missed two games and early in the week was still on the doubtful list. Don Hopkins was out for a week, came back for the Diablo game and then the flu hit again and like Moore he was on the doubtful list.

ONE BRIGHT light for the Knights is the return of end Brett Williams, who will be ready for duty and in all probability will go on the numer one defensive unit.

Pittsburg has a big line but the Knights can more than match them in size as they will average close to the 200 mark.

DeKlotz announced the starting lineup for the offensive unit as follows:

From left end, Randy Olson, Bob Blower, Jerry La Perle, Hermie Rowland, Rick Kraemer, Dave Weil, Clark Ransome.

IN THE backfield it'll be Pete Ostrom, left half; Duane Brown, full, and Phil Wirthman at right half. Quarter is a question mark—if both Hopkins and Moore return—they'll split the duty—if they are not ready the Knights will have to reach deep into the reserve bag.

Game time is 8 with a 5:45 preliminary between the Jayvee teams rain or shine.

Bill Klement (75) and Don McMacken (43) stop a Los Lomas back at the line as Mike Wilmar (88) looks the situation over. Las Lomas found itself on the short end of a 26-18 count which gave the Matadors their second victory. Today, Acalanes and Miramonte clash at 3:30.

Viks Are Choosing Campus Queen

East Contra Costa Junior College students this week are choosing a queen to reign at the football game and homecoming dance November 2.

The identity of the winner will be announced at half-time of the homecoming game between the Vikings and San Jose Junior College at the Las Lomas High School Field.

The queen will be crowned at the homecoming dance scheduled for the Diablo Room of the Student Activities Building, on campus, from 9 to 1 a.m. Five hundred persons are expected to attend.

The queen candidates are Gloria Enea, Pittsburg; Judy Sindahl, Orinda; Phyllis Williams, Concord; Yvonne Arnaud, Martine; Nancie Brotsch, Concord; Kay Ross, Walnut Creek; Louise Fluitt, Pittsburg; Kathy Rich, Concord; Jerre De Rosa, Concord; Dorothy Soroka, Lafayette; Leola Davis, Pittsburg; Ingrid Schadt, Danville.

Jim Douglas, of Concord, dance chairman said Rudy Salvini's 17-piece orchestra will provide the music. His assistant is Carole Tuescher, Lafayette. The dance theme is "Swinging Sweethearts." Erv Metzgar is faculty advisor.

Pirates, Knights, Sparta, Devils, Ram, Cats Set

The crucial game of the Diablo Valley Athletic League takes place tonight at Las Lomas with the Pittsburg Pirates cast as the invaders.

The Pirates looked tough when they blasted the Acalanes Dons last Friday night, but will have to be up again if they are to repeat with the Knights as victims.

A toughie to pick but it's out on a limb—a good not so long shot Knight eleven to win 19-13.

Diablo plays Pacifica at Pittsburg and it looks like a win for the Red Devils 26-13. Too much speed plus a long bench spells D-E-F-E-A-T for Sparta.

Pleasant Hill at Antioch finds a rugged go but the Rams are rolling and we pick them 26-6.

The Dons draw a bye with the JV club playing at Miramonte this afternoon. Miramonte in its second win 13-6. The game is set for 3:30.

All varsity league tilts start at 8 with the junior varsities opening play at 5:45. Next week finds Pleasant Hill at Las Lomas, Pacifica at Pittsburg and Acalanes at Diablo. Miramonte faces the Antioch JVs at the "Paper City" field.

Everyone Reads The SUN

Pirates Cut Through Don's Defense for 27-7 Victory

The Acalanes Dons met up with the Pittsburg Pirates Friday night and while they put up a good battle, their defense on the whole failed to come through and it wound up as a 26-7 Pirate win.

Pitt coach Tony Knap's eleven had squeezed by with a 7-6 win over the Pleasant Hill Rams two weeks earlier. The Rams undid them in everything but the scorebox.

PITT DREW a bye last week and watched the Dons upset the Rams. The rest and what was observed must have paid off.

The story was pretty much told in the line where the Pittsburg club tore holes through which their hard running backs gained yardage time and time again.

The Dons did score on a brilliant passing exhibition with quarter Mike Kritscher doing the throwing and flankerback Dave Bojarsky looking like a pro with his sensational catches.

THE PIRATES got off to a flying start when their ace junior halfback Vince Darone climaxed a drive in the first quarter on a two yard buck and added the extra point the same way.

He tallied again in the second quarter from two yards out.

The Dons got theirs late in the second stanza after recovering a Pitt fumble on their own 22. Four plays later Kritscher hit Bojarsky on a 12 yard pass as he jumped high in the end zone.

STUART BUSBY split the uprights with his place kick making the count 13-7.

The Pirates came back strong in the second half taking the kickoff and grinding out an 80 yard drive which took 12 plays to score. Fleet halfback Julius Esposito tore around left end for the final five yards.

The conversion failed when Pitt hit off tackle with a running play.

IN THE FINAL canto Pitt moved again covering 62 yards in seven plays to bring the ball to the Don 21. Halfback Bob Moffett took it over guard on the next play and when quarter Frank Cardinalli passed to end Ken Kovac for the extra point it went to 27-7.

The statistics gave Pitt 249 yards rushing and 98 in the air. Acalanes rated 125 in the air but, a scant 50 yards on the ground. Pittsburg plays at Las Lomas tonight while Acalanes draws a bye.

LL Knight Babes Bulldozed 26-18 By Matador J.V.

By DIXON FARMER

Miramonte's Matadors, improving with every encounter, downed the Junior Varsity from Las Lomas last Friday, 26-18.

Leading the Matadors in the quest for their first win, was Bruce Hancock, a sophomore halfback. Bruce scored three of the four Orinda touchdowns on jaunts of seven, nine and four yards.

IN THE FIRST quarter neither team could move the ball with satisfactory results and a battle of punters ensued. On the second Knight punt, the Miramonte ball club began to roll. Hancock for eight, Charley Blue for five, Hancock again for 32 and fullback Bruce Hilger spurted the final 38 yards around right end for the tally.

End Tim Crawford's fine catch for the point after touchdown made it 7-0.

Las Lomas bounced right back with a well executed 75 yard pass., Seiberlich to Hamilton for their first six points. The point after the touchdown failed.

The score remained 7-6 until Hancock countered the first of his three touchdowns from the seven. Tim Crawford's boot was good with the score moving to -4-6. Las Lomas retaliated with a 50 yard pass play. The half ended at 14-12 for the Matadors.

In the second half the Knights fought hard for the lead which they obtained in the third quarter. This was accomplished by a six yard flip to Hamilton who caught his third six-pointer of the game.

MIRAMONTE marched upfield after the kickoff. With Charley Blue, Hancock and Marc Littlejohn working for the Matadors, they ate up the yardage. Bruce scored again from the nine with the touchdown that put Miramonte ahead to stay.

Later, Hancock added an insurance touchdown as the Matadors held the Knights until the final gun. The score ended Miramonte 26 and Las Lomas 18.

Today the Matadors tangle with their crosstown rivals, Acalanes, at Miramonte High School. Holding true to form this game should have many surprises.

Nevertheless the Matadors should walk off the field victorious.

Devils Dedicate Antioch's Field With 19-18 Win

The Mt. Diablo Red Devils dedicated Antioch's new field Friday night and did it in rousing fashion when they rallied in the final four minutes of the game to edge the Panthers 19-8.

The game was a 6-6 tie at the half with the Devils' touchdown coming in the opening quarter on a 65 yard drive culminated by a touchdown as John Irvin plowed the final two yards.

ANTIOCH KNOTTED the count on a 44 yard pass scoring play in the second quarter. Quarterback Ernie Reyes tossed the pigskin and Dave Kirkpatrick caught and ran with it to the tally.

The Panthers took th lead in the third quarter when they went over from the one after a 59 yard sustained drive.

LATER IN THE period, Kulju broke loose for 61 yards and Tom Tallon put it over from the six. That gave the home club what appeared to be a comfortable 18-6 lead and it stayed that way until the clock showed four minutes to go and then all——broke loose.

The Devils raised "hop" as they took the ball on their own seven on a pass interception and ran it to the 32.

A 30 yard pass, then a pitchout to Gary Casey who rambled 38 yards to score, gave the Devils six. Al Trettle place kicked what proved to be the all important point.

THE PANTHERS used three running plays and the punt on fourth down was blocked. The Devils were in possession on the 46. Al Allison hit Casey with a 16 yarder.

Another pass and interference gave Diablo the ball on Antioch's 14. Casey took a pitchout with 26 seconds to go and skirted end for the big six and the win.

Rams-Cats Clash Tonight; PH Hot from 40-0 Rout

The Pleasant Hill Rams travel to Antioch tonight and with their showing against Pacifica last week figure to come home with league win number two.

The Rams scored their first league win last Friday night and were impressed in doing it as they rolled on to win by a 40-0 margin.

COACH HAL BRIGGS goes into tonight's game minus a pair of top defensive players. Al Fittenghoff and Tom Webb will sit this one out due to injuries—in fact will sit out the rest of the season.

The Rams have displayed better than average depth to date and can probably take up the slack.

Antioch is a good trail horse, not to tough and not too easy. The Pleasant Hill squad definitely appears to have arrived and should post win number two unless they tend to rest on their wins or look over the Antioch fight to the Las Lomas hassle coming up next week.

Coach Hal Briggs and his Pleasant Hill Rams passed and ran their win to a six touchdown 40-0 rout of the Pacific Spartans Friday night at Mt. Diablo High School Field.

IN TWO previous league outings the Rams lost a pair of heartbreakers. They did everything but drive the Pittsburg Pirates into the river only to lose 7-6.

In the second league game they met a red hot Acalanes eleven that was forced to fight an uphill battle before winning 39-26.

It was a different story last Friday night as the Rams weren't to be denied.

NUMEROUS PENALTIES held the Rams back only temporarily. The Rams took the opening kickoff and went 66 yards in 11 plays to score. Dan Ipson went over tackle for three yards for the TD and quarter Bill Locatelli booted the extra point.

Early in the second quarter Bob Stice plucked a Pacifica pass out out of the ozone and rambled 25 yards for another six. This time Locatelli's place kick misfired.

Time was running short in the half when touchdown number three came. The Rams covered 73 yards in 14 plays and with a minute on the clock Ipson scored again with an 18 yard gallop around end. Full Roger Leonard provided the key block.

Locatelli split the crossbars with the kick and it was 20-0.

THE RAMS continued their winning ways in the third quarter scoring 13 points when Leonard scored from the one after Bill Dutton gained possession on another pass interception and once again Locatelli made good on the conversion.

The next tally came as a 32 yard run by Lou Salazar to round out a 56 yard drive. This time Locatelli's conversion try was blocked by Pacifica's end, John Young.

The sixth and final score came when center Tony Bean intercepted a Spartan pass and ended up with it on the Pacific 10. Salazar went the distance and Locatelli applied the toe with perfection again to bring the count 40-0.

IT WAS THE Rams all the way with Pacific reaching the 19 of the Rams once but, for the most part, spent the game defending their own goal.

Don Ipson and Tom Larscheid were the Rams big offensive guns with each cracking for 114 yards on the ground. The Rams had a grand total of 335 yards. In first downs the Rams held a comfortable edge of 12-7. In the air the Rams had 27 yards on two passes while Sparta gained 66 on 12 attempts.

The Rams had a good night all the way around with an offense that rolled and a defense that clicked. Standouts on defense weer Salzar, Dutton, Fittinghoff, Beane and John Pratt.

Leisure doesn't depend on time or place, on activity or lack of activity. It's rather a frame of mind, a relaxed attitude . . . something quickly induced by a Louis Roth sport coat. In the face of such glorious woolens, or silk and wools, so freshly conceived and so comfortably tailored, the workaday world seems very far away. May we show you our Easy Acres collection?
